

Abstract

~~The invention relates to peptides forming epitopes of the antigen MMP2, presented by MHC Class I. Said peptides can especially be used in antitumoral immunotherapy.~~

Peptides derived from MMP-2 metalloproteinase that form T cell epitopes when presented by MHC Class I molecules. Anti-tumor therapy using these peptides.